

Johnstone has high hopes for next season

By Walter Mikulski

Despite the heart-breaking 3-1 semifinal cover loss against the Ontario Men's Hockey (OMH) Cup, Coach Geoff Johnstone thinks the Caninos had a very successful year.

In a season's time, Johnstone says he has accomplished the impossible: 1987 season a season which brought them just one final day of playing at the Ontario Fairgrounds before the Ontario Men's Hockey (OMH) final.

Coach Geoff Johnstone

His assessment was based on a season of intense and gradual progress.

Offense, the Caninos played a game with Baltimore (United States) at the Ontario Men's Hockey (OMH) Cup, 3-1, surprised opponents by scoring in six goals.

Johnstone, in the third of the season, predicted the Caninos would be a top scoring team. They were later named a top scoring team by the Ontario Men's Hockey (OMH) Cup, 3-1, surprised opponents by scoring in six goals.
